The adoption of the new text of the Corporate By-laws shall be proposed at the extraordinary meeting of BPU convened for the approval of the Merger; this text is indicated in Enclosure A and shall provide also for the adoption of "Unione di Banche Italiane Società cooperative per azioni" (briefly "UBI Banca") as the new name of the Merging company as well as a dualistic governance system, pursuant to what is provided by articles 2409-octies and subsequent of the Italian Civil Code, which contemplates the setting up of a Supervisory Board and of a Management Board.

With reference to the adoption of the new text of the Corporate By-laws, it is hereby further declared that some of the new clauses imply, pursuant to art. 28 of the Corporate By-laws in force of the Merging company, an amendment to the By-laws to be adopted with the favourable vote of at least one twentieth of all the shareholders entitled to vote.

Therefore, if the resolution for the approval of this Project and of the relevant Corporate By-laws enclosed under A is approved by a majority that is lower than the last mentioned, the purpose of the resolution considered must consist of the approval of this Project and of the Corporate By-laws enclosed under A, after replacing art. 3, 23, 28, 31 and 36 with the corresponding articles indicated in enclosure B of this Project.

Starting from the effective date of the Merger, the shareholders of the Merged Company shall become shareholders of the Merging company, which shall maintain its own legal status of cooperative bank, and shall be subject to the regulations on the banking cooperative companies and, in particular, to what is provided for by art. 30 of Lgs.D. no. 385 of September 1st, 1993.

In particular, this provision contemplates that (i) each shareholder is entitled to a single vote regardless of the number of shares held and that (ii) no shareholder, except for the collective investment companies, may hold more than 0.50% of the share capital. According to this regulation, the shareholder is obliged to transfer the surplus shares within one year from when the Company notifies this surplus; in default, the economic rights pertaining to the surplus shares are acquired by the bank until they are transferred.

The shareholders of the Merged Company shall be automatically registered in the shareholders' register of the Merging company, at the same time and due to the Merger, in virtue of the transitional rule number I provided by the Corporate By-laws under Enclosure A.

The ordinary meeting of BPU, right after the approval of the Project, shall appoint, pursuant to and in compliance with what is provided by the transitional rule number V of the newly approved Corporate By-laws, 23 (twenty three) members of the Supervisory Board. Both the resolution approving the new text of the Corporate By-laws and the appointment of the members of the Supervisory Board shall be effective from the legal date of the Merger, except for the immediate effectiveness of the transitional rules number IV and V of the new Corporate By-laws.

3. CONVERSION RATIO

The conversion ratio is as follows:

- no. 0.83 (zero point eighty three) newly-issued ordinary shares of the Merging company with a nominal value of Euro 2.50 each for each no. 1 (one) ordinary share of Banca Lombarda.

The financial statements of reference are represented by the consolidated quarterly reports as of September 30th, 2006 of BPU and Banca Lombarda subject to limited auditing.

No cash adjustment will be provided for.

4. ALLOTMENT METHODS OF THE MERGING COMPANY SHARES ASSIGNED IN EXCHANGE TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF BANCA LOMBARDA

- cancel without conversion any ordinary share of Banca Lombarda held by the Merging company.

In this regard, it is hereby declared that the Merged Company doesn't hold own shares.

The Merger deed will report the waiver of one or more shareholders of the Merged Company of the conversion of the share fraction required for assuring the overall squaring of the operation.

The shareholders of the Merged Company shall be supplied with a service for processing fractions of shares, at market prices, without further rise in costs for expenses, stamps or commissions.

The newly-issued shares of the Merging company for the conversion - which shall be listed in the same way as the currently outstanding BPU shares - shall be put at the disposal of the shareholders of the Merged Company according to the methods of the dematerialised shares concentrated in Monte Titoli S.p.A. starting from the first working day following the legal date of the civil effects of the Merger. This date shall be made known in the appropriate notice concerning the Merger published on at least one national daily newspaper.

The conversion operations shall be carried out, starting from the first effective date of the Merger, at the branches of the Unione di Banche Italiane S.c.p.a. and of the other companies of the relevant Group, as well as at any other authorised intermediary pursuant to the law.

5. RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL

The implementation of the Merger shall entitle the shareholders of the Merged Company who have not contributed to the approval of the Project during the meeting to completely or partially withdraw their shares. In this event, the shareholders exercising this right of withdrawal shall be paid a compensation determined with reference to the arithmetic average of the closing prices during the six months preceding the publication of the notice of call of the extraordinary meeting of Banca Lombarda convened to decide on the Merger.

The effectiveness of the withdrawal shall be subject to the effectiveness of the Merger.

Moreover, the effectiveness of the Merger as well as the stipulation of the Merger deed are in turn subject to the condition that the right of withdrawal by the shareholders of Banca Lombarda is not exercised by them for a percentage of the share capital greater than 10% (ten per cent). The Merging company and the Merged Company may waive this condition by mutual consent no later than 10 (ten) working days from the day on which the final data concerning the right of withdrawal being exercised will be notified by Banca Lombarda to the Merging company.

6. EFFECTIVE DATE OF PROFIT SHARING OF THE SHARES OF THE MERGING COMPANY ALLOTTED IN EXCHANGE

The ordinary shares of the Merging company that shall be issued in exchange of the Banca Lombarda shares cancelled due to the Merger shall have cum-coupon value and shall assign to their owners rights identical to those pertaining to the holders of outstanding ordinary shares at the moment of their issue. In this regard, following the effective date of the Merger, the competent bodies of the Merging company must decide, without distinction for the benefit of all the shareholders of the Merging company itself, the distribution of a dividend relevant to the 2006 financial year to be assigned to each share of the post-Merger Merging company, which shall be proposed in Euro 0.80 per share.

7. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE MERGER EFFECTS

The Merger effects towards third parties, pursuant to art. 2504-bis, sub-paragraph 2, of the Italian Civil Code, shall start from the last registration of the Merger deed, or from the following date that shall be indicated in the deed itself and in any case not before April 1st, 2007.

8. POSSIBLE TREATMENT RESERVED TO SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF SHAREHOLDERS AND TO HOLDERS OF SECURITIES OTHER THAN SHARES

Neither the Merging company nor the Merged Company issued securities other than shares to whom a special treatment might be reserved within this Merger.

As a result, no special treatment is expected for any category of shareholders.

9. POSSIBLE SPECIAL ADVANTAGES PROPOSED FOR THE BENEFIT OF SUBJECTS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANIES PARTICIPATING IN THE MERGER

No special advantage is proposed for the benefit of the directors of the companies participating in the Merger.

SECTION III

SHARE CAPITAL, SHAREHOLDERS AND SHARES

ARTICLE 5

The share capital is variable and unlimited; it is represented by registered shares of the par value of Euro 2.50 (two point fifty) each.

The issue of new shares may be decided:

- a) exceptionally, by the Shareholders' extraordinary meeting, in compliance with what is provided by article 2441 of the Italian Civil Code, with the majorities and the quorum provided by these By-laws for the setting up and the resolutions of the Shareholders' extraordinary meeting, with the right to give proxies to the Management Board, but subject to prior authorisation of the Supervisory Board, in compliance with the regulations in force, for exercising the rights provided by articles 2420 ter and 2443 of the Italian Civil Code.

ARTICLE 6

Natural persons, excluding those under the conditions provided in the following article 7, are allowed as Shareholders.

Corporate bodies and other joint bodies can become Shareholders of the Company provided that they appoint in writing the natural person authorised to represent them; no change of the latter can be opposed to the Company till this has been notified with registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt.

Minors may be admitted as Shareholders on request of their legal representative who substitutes for them in all the relations with the Company.

The persons appointed as above, the legal representatives of natural persons, as well as the common representatives as per the second sub-paragraph of article 15 of these By-laws, may exercise all the rights pertaining to the Shareholders, but, in this capacity, they cannot be appointed in corporate positions.

The presentation of the certification attesting the ownership of at least 250 shares is requested to be admitted as Shareholder.

The Management Board has the right to determine the extent of the preliminary investigation expenses, if accepted, to be placed to the charge of the new admitted Shareholder.

The candidate Shareholder must declare in the application his/her commitment to the obligations provided by the By-laws, the regulations and corporate resolutions.

ARTICLE 9

Knowing the law provisions on cooperative banks, any decision on the acceptance of the Shareholder applications is taken by the Management Board, also in the light of the general principles indicated by the Supervisory Board, considering exclusively the objective interests of the Company, including those concerning its independence, as well as the observance of the spirit of the co-operative form; the party concerned is informed of this decision. For the purposes of evaluating these requirements, any previous relation of those submitting the application with companies of the Group will be taken into consideration.

ARTICLE 10

The non-acceptance as shareholder, suitably and consistently justified in relation to the principles as per Article 9, must be notified in writing to the domicile of the applicant no later than 60 (sixty) days from when the application is received by the Company.

The only effect produced by the non-acceptance as Shareholder, for those holding regularly Company shares, is to prevent exercising rights other than those having an economic value.

ARTICLE 12

The capacity to act as a Shareholder is acquired, following the acceptance resolution, with the admission in the Shareholders' register.

Without prejudice to what is provided by the previous art. 5, fourth sub-paragraph, if the new shareholder is admitted following the issue of shares decided normally by the mutual representative appointed according to the methods provided by the regulations in force. If the mutual representative has not been appointed or if the Company has not been informed of this appointment, the communications and declarations made by the Company to any one of the co-owners are effective towards everyone.

Shares can be transferred according to the law. As long as the transferee of the shares has not been admitted as a Shareholder, it is allowed to exercise only the rights having an economic value.

The transfer by the Shareholder of the overall shareholding, taken over by the Company, implies the loss of the capacity as Shareholder.

The Management Board may purchase or pay up the shares of the Company according to the provision of article 2529 of the Italian Civil Code, within the limits of the distributable profits and of the available reserves deriving from the last duly adopted financial statements, intended for these purposes by the Shareholders' Meeting. Purchased shares may be reinvested or discharged.

In all cases of redemption, the Shareholder or its assignees are obliged to deliver the certification attesting the ownership of the relevant shares.

The amount of the redemption is non-interest bearing.

ARTICLE 16

In any case, shares are considered, by corporate agreement, subjected to a lien for the benefit of the Company, in guarantee of all the direct and indirect obligations of the Shareholder towards the Company.

With reference to what was mentioned above, the Management Board, without prejudice to any other and different procedure, may order, totally or partially, the sale of the shares of the defaulting Shareholder without its putting in default and without proceeding formalities, by means of a notary or qualified intermediary, transferring the obtained amount to the curtailment or to the repayment of the debt. Any excess is deposited in a non-interest bearing current account of the Shareholder.

ARTICLE 17

Sharing in the net worth and in the profits is proportioned to the shares held.

Dividends that have not been collected within five years from the date on which they became collectable shall be transferred to the Company in order to increase the legal reserve.

ARTICLE 18

No Shareholder is allowed to hold a number of shares greater than the maximum number allowed by the law.

If the above-mentioned limit is exceeded, the Company does not enter the surplus into the Shareholder's register.

ARTICLE 19

The transfer of shares can be opposed to the Company provided that the formalities prescribed by the law are fulfilled and the successors who are not already Shareholders obtain the authorisation provided by the third sub-paragraph of art. 15 of these By-laws. The Board of Arbitrators controls the carrying out of the judgement as it deems it advisable with no procedural formalities.

The Management Board and the General Manager or the employee appointed by him are obliged to supply the Auditors all the information and news required by them concerning the controversy to be resolved.

3.2. The Committee may be convened on initiative of its Chairman as well as on request of at least 2 (two) of its members.

Article 4

Appointment principles

4.1. When appointing the candidacies for the positions as member of the Supervisory Board and of the Management Board within the Parent Bank, as well as when appointing the candidacies for the positions as director and auditor within the Controlled Banks, the Appointment Committee observes the principles and methods indicated below, in compliance with the principle of joint nature between the party deriving from BPU and the party deriving from Banca Lombarda, without prejudice to law provisions on the appointment of any minority members applicable to the specific case. These principles are in compliance with the alternation principle for the derivation of the top representatives of the Supervisory Board and of the Managing Board of the New Parent Bank and of the propensity to alternate among the aforementioned two members when renewing the above-mentioned offices.

4.2. In particular, the candidate for the positions must be identified among persons with the appropriate requirements of respectability, professionalism, experience, independence and representativeness. More precisely, the candidates must: (i) have the requirements of respectability, professionalism and independence according to the provisions of the temporary regulations in force for the company representatives in general and of each bank; (ii) preferably be qualified representatives of the entrepreneurial classes, professional categories or the academic world.

Candidates must preferably represent the territory in which the Parent Bank and/or the Controlled Bank work (or intend to develop their own activity); the subject must be appointed in their administration and control body.

In any case, within the same office, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the Chairman of the Management Board shall not represent the same party within the Parent Bank, but they must represent two different parties of the Parent Bank, i.e. Banca Lombarda and BPU or vice versa, respectively, according to a tendential alternation principle, in compliance with what is governed by the following provisions, taking in consideration the superior corporate interest. The same principle must apply within the Supervisory Board and the Management Board for the positions of Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board and of Vice-Chairman of the Management Board, taking into account the party - deriving from Banca Lombarda or BPU - who appointed the Chairmen of these bodies.

4.3. Moreover, and with a specific reference to the following bodies, the Appointment Committee observes the principles and methods detailed below :

A) Corporate bodies of the Parent Bank

In relation to the corporate bodies of the Parent Bank, such as the Management Board and the Supervisory Board, it is acknowledged that, for the first three-year assignment, the following persons were appointed as members of the Supervisory Board of the Parent Bank - on the occasion of the BPU shareholder's Meeting that approved the merger through incorporation project of Banca Lombarda in BPU (hereinafter referred to as “Merger”):

The following persons were appointed by the Supervisory Board as formed above, as members of the Management Board of the Parent Bank, for the first three-year assignment:

All that has been said above is evidence of the personal identity and the origin of the representatives for the first three-year assignment of the two different members - on the one hand, Banca Lombarda, on the other hand, BPU - within the corporate bodies of the Parent Bank, and guarantee in this way the application of the following rules referring to the assignments of the aforementioned bodies following the first one.

The composition of the Supervisory Board and of the Management Board of the Parent Bank, except for the first assignment, must be in compliance with the principles specified below and in particular with the alternation principle of the derivation of the top representatives of the Supervisory Board and of the Management Board between the above-mentioned members, as well as with the tendential alternation principle between these members when renewing the aforementioned positions, taking however into consideration the superior corporate interest.

Supervisory Board

The Supervisory Board shall consist of 23 (twenty three) Directors, including a Chairman, a Deputy Vice-Chairman and two Vice-Chairmen.

For the purposes of appointing these directors, the Appointment Committee shall propose to the Supervisory Board the formation of a list (hereinafter referred to as the “List of the Supervisory Board”) that shall indicate twenty three names with a progressive numbering from 1 to 23, identified as follows:

- (i) 11 (eleven) candidates, including the one proposed as Vice-Chairman, shall be directly appointed by the Banca Lombarda Members;
- (ii) 11 (eleven) more candidates, including the one proposed as Vice-Chairman, shall be directly appointed by the BPU Members;
- (iii) the last one, the twenty-third candidate, shall be designated by the Appointment Committee with the favourable vote of 5 (five) members out of 6 (six) . If the List of the Supervisory Board has obtained the approval of the shareholders' Meeting of the Parent Bank, the twenty-third candidate shall hold the office of member of the Supervisory Board only provided that no minority list has been validly submitted during this Meeting. Should the members of the Appointment Committee fail to agree on the appointment of the twenty-third name to be entered in the List of the Supervisory Board, this name shall be appointed by the Supervisory Board at the qualified majority of 17 (seventeen) of its members out of 23 (twenty three).

It is understood that if the regulation in force each time or the corporate by-laws of the Parent Bank reserve to the minority a number of members of the Supervisory Board greater than one, a number of members equal to the number reserved to the minority, in addition to the members appointed pursuant to the previous letters (i) and (ii), shall be chosen according to the voting methods set forth in the previous letter (iii).

Therefore, the members of the Supervisory Board shall be able to increase, subject to alteration in the by-laws, as much as the members of the Supervisory Board, in addition to those set forth in the previous letter (iii), which the law or the by-laws of the Parent Bank may reserve to the minority. As a result, also the resolution quorum of the Supervisory Board set forth, likewise, in the previous letter (iii), and the other resolution quorum referring to this body and provided elsewhere within this regulation, must be considered increased as much as the aforementioned additional members of the Supervisory Board to be reserved to the minority: for example, if 2 (two) members of the Supervisory Board are appointed by the minority, and 24 (twenty four) is the overall number of members of the Supervisory Board, the Supervisory Board itself shall decide, according to and for the purposes of letter (iii), at the qualified majority of 18 (eighteen) members out of 24 (twenty four); if the members of the Supervisory Board reserved to the minority are 3 (three), it shall decide at the qualified majority of 19 (nineteen) members out of 25 (twenty five), and so on.

The above, unless otherwise decided by the Managing Board with the favourable vote of 8 (eight) members (or of all the members minus one, for the case in which the Management Board consists of 7 to 8 members) on the proposal of amendment to the by-laws.

For what concerns the offices of Chairman and Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board, a special meeting of the Appointment Committee shall be convened at least and no later than 2 (two) months before the termination of each assignment (including the first assignment) in order to identify, with the favourable vote of at least 5 (five) out of 6 (six) members, the names of those who will be proposed as candidates by the Supervisory Board for these positions during the assignment following the expiring one. The name of the candidate for the position of Chairman of the Supervisory Board appointed by the Supervisory Board itself must be indicated in the first position of the List of the Supervisory Board, marked by number 1, and the name of the candidate for the position of Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board appointed by the Supervisory Board itself must be indicated in the second position of this List, marked by number 2.

If the Appointment Committee, within 2 (two) months before the termination of each assignment, as specified above, is not able to appoint the candidates for the position of Chairman and/or Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board, with the aforementioned majority, the candidate for the position of Chairman of the Supervisory Board for the following assignment shall be appointed, in compliance with the alternation principle, as the first name in the List of the Supervisory Board, by the members of the Appointment Committee representing the party who did not apply for candidacy for this position during the previous assignment. Likewise, the candidate for the position of Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be appointed by the members of the Appointment Committee representing the party who did not apply for the candidacy for the same position during the previous assignment as the second name in the List of the Supervisory Board.

In any case, the candidate for the position of Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the candidate for the position of Chairman of the Management Board, as well as the candidate for the position of Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the candidate for the position of Vice-Chairman of the Management Board, shall not be appointed by the members of the Appointment Committee representing the same party.

If, for any reason, one or more members of the Supervisory Board, as appointed above, fall from their office in advance as to the termination of the appointment, the candidate or candidates replacing them shall be appointed by the Banca Lombarda Members or by the BPU Members, according to whether this/these member/s of the Supervisory Board fallen from office represent one party or the other.

In the event of the termination of the office of the Chairman and/or Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board, the Appointment Committee shall select the candidates for these positions with the favourable vote of 5 (five) members out of 6 (six). In case of failure to reach this resolution quorum, the Supervisory Board shall propose the subjects appointed by the members of the Appointment Committee representing the party - deriving from BPU or Banca Lombarda - to whom belonged the member fallen from office to the shareholders' meeting of the Parent Bank as candidates for the position of Chairman and/or Deputy Vice-Chairman.

Management Board

Starting from the second three-year assignment, the Management Board of the Parent Bank shall consist of 11 (eleven) Members, including a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman and a Managing Director (CEO). For the purposes of appointing these members, the Appointment Committee shall formulate an appointment proposal for the Supervisory Board of the Parent Bank (hereinafter referred to as the "Proposal"), which shall indicate eleven names with a progressive numbering from 1 to 11, identified as follows:

- (i)* 5 (five) candidates shall be directly appointed by the Banca Lombarda Members;
- (ii)* 5 (five) more candidates shall be directly appointed by the BPU Members;
- (iii)* the last one - eleventh name - who will also be a candidate for the position of Managing Director (CEO) of the Parent Bank, shall be designated by the Appointment Committee, during a special meeting to be held at least and no more than 2 (two) months before the termination of each assignment of the Managing Board (including the first assignment) with the favourable vote of at least 5 (five) out of 6 (six) members. Within the Proposal, this candidate must be ranked third marked by number 3. If the Appointment Committee is not convened in time or does not reach the majority specified above for what concerns the appointment of the candidate for the position of Managing Director (CEO), the latter shall be appointed by the Supervisory Board at the qualified majority of 17 (seventeen) of its members out of 23 (twenty three).

For what concerns the offices of Chairman and Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Management Board, a special meeting of the Appointment Committee shall be convened at least and no later than 2 (two) months before the termination of each assignment (including the first assignment) in order to identify, with the favourable vote of at least 5 (five) out of 6 (six) members, the names of those who will be proposed as candidates by the Supervisory Board for these positions during the assignment following the expiring one. The name of the candidate for the position of Chairman of the Managing Board appointed by the Supervisory Board must be ranked first within the Proposal marked by number 1, and the name of the candidate for the position of Deputy Vice Chairman of the Managing Board appointed by the Supervisory Board must be ranked second within this Proposal, marked by number 2. If the Appointment Committee, within 2 (two) months before the termination of each assignment, as specified above, is not able to appoint the candidates for the position of Chairman and/or Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Managing Board, with the aforementioned majority, the candidate for the position of Chairman of the Managing Board for the following assignment shall be appointed, in compliance with the alternation principle, as the first name within the Proposal, by the members of the Appointment Committee representing the party who did not apply for candidacy for this position during the previous assignment. Likewise, the candidate for the position of Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Managing Board shall be appointed by the members of the Appointment Committee representing the party who did not apply for the candidacy for the same position during the previous assignment as the second name within the Proposal.

Also with reference to the Management Board, reference is made to the principle according to which the candidate for the position of Chairman of the Management Board and the candidate for the position of Chairman of the Supervisory Board, as well as the candidate for the position of Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Management Board and the candidate for the position of Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board, shall not be appointed by the members of the Appointment Committee representing the same party.

If, for any reason, one or more members of the Management Board, as appointed above, fall from their office in advance as to the termination of the appointment, the candidate or candidates replacing them shall be appointed by the Banca Lombarda Members or by the BPU Members, according to whether this/these member/s of the Management Board fallen from office derive from one party or the other.

In the event of the termination of the office of the Chairman and/or Deputy Vice-Chairman of the Managing Board, after restoring the Management Board pursuant to the previous paragraph, the candidates identified by the Appointment Committee shall be proposed to the Supervisory Board with the favourable vote of 5 (five) members out of 6 (six). In case of failure to reach this resolution quorum, the candidates for the position of Chairman and/or Deputy Vice Chairman of the Management Board shall be appointed by the members of the Appointment Committee representing the party - deriving from BPU or Banca Lombarda - to whom belonged the member fallen from office.

In the event of the termination of the office of the Managing Director (CEO), after restoring the Managing Board according to competence, the Appointment Committee shall propose a new candidate for this position with the favourable vote of 5 (five) members out of 6 (six). In case of failure to reach this resolution quorum, the candidate for the office of Managing Director shall be appointed by the Supervisory Board with the favourable vote of 17 (seventeen) members out of 23 (twenty three). The procedure regulated above for substituting the Managing Director (CEO) is also applied with reference to the first three-year assignment of the Management Board, i.e. in case the Managing Director already appointed falls from office in advance as to the termination of this assignment.

B) Corporate bodies of the following Controlled Banks: Banco di Brescia S.p.A., Banca Regionale Europea S.p.A.

Board of Directors

One third of the candidates for the position of member of the Board of Directors of the Controlled Banks listed above - or of any other management body, if these Controlled Banks adopted management systems other than the ordinary one - shall be appointed directly by the Banca Lombarda Members, whereas the remaining 2/3 (two thirds) by the Management Board of the Parent Bank.

Article 6

Declaration of the members falling from office and of the candidates for the position of member of a board

No one shall be appointed as candidate for any position within the bodies of the Parent Bank and of the Controlled Banks, if he has not previously signed a special written declaration in which he undertakes to refrain from participating directly or indirectly, also through the management of the Parent Bank and of the controlled companies, in promoting lists other than the List of the Supervisory Board, or in collecting the relevant signatures for submitting these lists to the shareholders' meeting convened to appoint the Supervisory Board. Therefore, the outgoing members of the Supervisory Board and of the Management Board as well as the candidates for the same positions must in any case expressly declare that they have nothing to do with the promotion and formation of other lists other than the List of the Supervisory Board and undertake an engagement in this sense at the time of the termination and not only on the occasion of the renewal or candidacy.
