

COVID-19 “CORONAVIRUS”: BUSINESS AND PERSONAL CUSTOMERS OF UBI BANCA MAY ASK FOR REPAYMENTS ON LOANS TO BE DEFERRED

This measure applies to customers who are resident in the municipalities subject to prohibition orders and to all firms that have operating headquarters in them.

Milan, 27th February 2020 – Repayments on loans to businesses and families directly affected by the Coronavirus emergency are temporarily suspended. UBI Banca has taken this measure to support its customers.

The measure applies to residents and businesses with headquarters in the municipalities subject to special measures and prohibition orders and to businesses which have more generally suffered difficulties in carrying out their activities as a consequence of the emergency.

The measure makes it possible for repayments on mortgages granted to natural persons and loans granted to businesses to be deferred for three months. This period may be extended if the emergency continues.

UBI Banca branches and customer service units are available to provide information on these extraordinary measures and how to access them.
